

PROJECT MANAGER --STRUCTURAL

Immediate opening for an experienced civil engineer to effectively manage an established structural team responsible for the production and management of design for bridges, retaining walls, foundations and various other structures related to transportation, public infrastructure and private projects. This Project Manager position is based in the TNP Fort Worth office and provides structural design services for all of TNP's offices.

Position Requirements:

At a minimum, candidates must meet the following educational, professional and personal requirements:

Education/Registration

- B.S. in Civil Engineering; M.S. with emphasis on structures and/or geotechnical, desired
- Current registration as a Professional Engineer (Civil) in the State of Texas.

Professional

- Responsive and results oriented in service to clients
- Ten (10) to fifteen (15) years experience in the design of transportation, municipal, and commercial site structures including bridges, retaining walls of various types, and underground structures
- Proficient (working knowledge of) in Microstation, AutoCAD 2008 software, various structural analysis and design programs, as well as Microsoft Word and Excel
- TxDOT pre-certification for the layout and design of major bridges required. Additional pre-certifications such as multi-level interchange design, major roadway design, and complex highway design, desired
- Excellent technical and team management skills
- Committed to professional development and motivated to contribute of the growth of our company
- Demonstrated ability to develop solid working relationships with other team members

Personal

- Strong organizational and management skills
- Continuous learner; Good Listener
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Creative problem solver with "Get it done"/"Can do" attitude
- Interacts positively and effectively with people in all levels of organizations
- Effective leader and mentor

Responsibilities/Expectations:

Responsibilities include:

- Determining budgets for various types of projects and maintaining those budgets throughout the design and construction process.
- Conducting project management in accordance with TNP standards and guidelines.
- Performing and/or directing development of methods and routines to increase efficiency of production and accuracy of the content of plans.
- Coordination with other disciplines.
- Construction administration and assisting with marketing efforts.

Compensation/Benefits:

Compensation includes competitive base salary, supplemental pay for additional hours worked and year-end, performance-based bonus opportunities. Excellent company benefits are also provided including: medical, dental, and vision insurance, life and disability insurance, a 401(k) plan with company matching, and paid time-off.

Please e-mail resume to employ@tnp-online.com or fax to (817) 336-2813, Attention: Human Resources